

HIPAA Workforce Training

Concise, Interactive HIPAA Training and Certification

Training is an important element of any HIPAA compliance program. Government regulations and organizational policies change often. It is the responsibility of healthcare organizations to train and update their workforce accordingly. Online training is one of the most effective ways to provide comprehensive training to help your workforce gain an understanding of key elements of HIPAA compliance and their responsibilities in securing and protecting PHI.

We've taken the guesswork out of training your employees on HIPAA compliance requirements.

Intracorp Health's HIPAA One® Learning Management System (LMS) offers concise, role-based HIPAA courses to train your workforce on relevant security and privacy information. At the end of each HIPAA training module, employees' knowledge is tested through a series of questions. The platform offers course completion certificates for easy learner tracking, analytics, and reporting. With options to customize courses, you can maintain control. Proper education can save your organization the financial burden of experiencing a breach due to ineffective training.

We provide trainings that are:

- Easy to implement
- Address critical security information
- Informs all staff in the shortest time possible
- 24/7 online modules delivered on a hosted, user-friendly learning management platform
